  - H. Alamo Watch Subcommittee: current issues being discussed include camera and alarm systems as well as a per diem deputy vs. overtime deputies. Board member Mcpherson requested we revisit the Committee's priorities with regards to the APSAC funded deputy. Historically, per the original resolution in 1969, it states: "extended police protection". Recurring descriptions in prior minutes include youth, schools, and backup in Alamo. A 1997 job description included youth, schools, backup in Alamo and "community patrol". In 1998, a former Chair of the P2B listed the priorities of the P2B committee as schools, community relations and high visibility patrol within the district.
